

Veterinary Technician Position
Cache Creek Veterinary Hospital

Cache Creek Veterinary Hospital is modern veterinary facility with all the bells and whistles. We have a great team with a focus on maintaining a healthy work environment. At CCVH professionals can practice their craft and are challenged to expand their professional skills. Job satisfaction is very important to us. Currently we are adding a new tech position, available immediately. If the successful candidate has experience they will be placed a level appropriate to their skill set. New graduates are welcome, and we will provide you with an environment that will quickly allow you to gain the hands on skills to advance your career.

Job Description

- Mixed animal practice.
- Comfort and experience working with horses and cattle would be an asset, but it is not a requirement.
- Preparing animals for surgery
- Monitoring anesthesia
- In-house laboratory; CBC/Chem, Fecal PCR, Urinalysis
- Xray
- Patient monitoring; endoscopy, ultrasound, dental extractions, post op, critically ill
- Emergency
- Dental prophylaxis
- Case documentation
- Client Communication

Requirements

- Successful completion a Animal Health Technician (or equivalent) diploma.
- In good standing with the BCTVA
- Must be able to obtain a membership with the BCTVA
- No criminal record
- Valid Drivers License

Compensation

- Pay is commensurate with experience, but we are very competitive at all levels
- Medical plan

Please send resume or CV to postmaster@cachevet.ca c/o vet tech position